Early Start Resources

The Family Resource Centers Network of California (FRCNCA) is a coalition of California’s 47 Family Resource Centers. ensuring the continuance, expansion, promotion and quality of family-centered, parent-directed, family resource centers.

Family Resource Centers (Early Start) – Families of infants and toddlers can receive parent-to-parent support from Early Start Family Resource Centers who actively work in partnership with local regional centers and education agencies and help many parents, families and children get information about early intervention services and how to navigate the Early Start system. The Family Resource Centers are staffed by parents who have children with special needs.

SCDDs The State of Employment for Californians with Developmental Disabilities (2016) “Employment First Report” - It is now the state’s highest priority to make Competitive Integrated Employment (CIE) a real choice for people with developmental disabilities. CIE is a job at a workplace among individuals with and without disabilities. It will be a full or part-time position at or above minimum wage. Self-employment is another option. The SCDD Employment First Committee (EFC) annually reports on employment for people with I/DD while identifying best practices and recommending legislative, regulatory, and policy changes for increasing the number of individuals with I/DD in CIE, self-employment, and microenterprises. Quality Assessment and National Core Indicators Survey (NCI)
In 2010, in accordance with Welfare and Institutions Code, Section 4571, the California Department of Developmental Services (DDS) implemented a nation-wide quality assessment survey called the National Core Indicators (NCI). NCI is one tool used to monitor the performance of the developmental disabilities service system as well as the performance of the twenty-one regional centers in providing services and supports for adults and children with developmental disabilities in California. The results of those mail-in and face-to-face surveys are available in both English and in Spanish on the California Department of Developmental Services (DDS) website.
