

South Central Los Angeles Regional Center, in Partnership with the Los Angeles Regional Office of the State Council on Developmental Disabilities, Presents the Self Determination Independent Facilitators Training

Saturday, August 20, 2016
 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.
 South Central Los Angeles Regional Center
 2500 S. Western Avenue
 Los Angeles, CA 90018

NOTE: SCLARC's Parking Structure is located on Hobart Avenue. You will enter the SCLARC campus from the parking garage.

Independent Facilitators play a vital part of the Self Determination Program. This in-depth, all day training is intended for those who are interested in becoming an independent Facilitator for their child, loved one or themselves. The law requires that Facilitators be trained. This workshop will cover the various parts necessary to do this job. The training curriculum includes:

- | | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------|
| A Brief Overview of Self-Determination | Identifying Appropriate Services for Individuals |
| The Roles and Responsibilities of the Independent Facilitator | Panel Discussion of Facilitators |
| Effective Person Centered Planning | Development of a Budget |
| Advocacy Strategies | |

IMPORTANT: PLEASE NOTE

1. There will be no charge to SCLARC consumers or families.
2. Professionals interested in attending will be charged $40.
3. Priority will be given to SCLARC's consumers and families.
4. Training guidelines have not yet been determined by the Department of Developmental Services.
5. We cannot guarantee that this training will fulfill requirements that they may establish in the future.
6. Lunch will be served.
7. We are unable to provide childcare.
