When you write a letter...

Address your letter correctly, with your state elected representative's title – "Governor," "Senator," or "Assembly Member," – followed by their name and address.

Say who you are, where you live, what you do, and tell the representative if you are a registered voter... that is important.

Keep your letter to the point. Only talk about one thing. Explain why this issue is important and how it affects you or your family member.

Close by saying how you want your representative to vote on the issue or legislation and thank the representative for listening.

When you meet your elected representative...

Before the meeting, write a letter, and refer to it at the meeting. Show your representative a picture of your family.

Get to the point quickly. Say how the issue you are talking about affects you or your family member. It helps your representative understand what is important to you.

Keep the meeting short. Your representative has many responsibilities and appreciates when others value the time they have to give to their constituents.

Be respectful. A positive and courteous approach helps communication and brings better results.

Be sure to thank your representative for talking with you.
