Employment: So Much Is Possible
Employment: Core Concepts

1. Everyone can work!

2. Work looks differently for everybody

3. Employment should be rooted in what your family member wants to do
“Employment First”

It is the policy of the state that opportunities for integrated, competitive employment shall be given the highest priority for working age individuals with developmental disabilities, regardless of the severity of their disabilities.

California Assembly Bill No. 1041 (2013)

- Individual – Not in a group or enclave
- Integrated – Alongside those without disabilities, with opportunities to interact
- Employment – In the general workforce, on the payroll of a business or self-employed
- Minimum Wage – At or above minimum wage or at industry standard wage
Why Should Your Family Member Work?

“The growth in his personal development, confidence and maturity became apparent very soon after he started working. Everyone in his family took notice and was delighted with the happy adult my son had become.”

New Reality

• More attention to health and safety
• More time in front of a computer or device
• Limited access to supports for periods of time?

Certain job sectors will bounce back and employees will be needed.
Seeing Your Family Member in a New Way
How do We Define Expectations?

“Expectations” are a belief that someone will or should achieve something; that something will happen or is likely to happen in the future.

“High Expectations” are the belief that a person with a disability (or other barrier) can achieve the same life and have the same life choices as everyone else.
Where Do Low Expectations Come From?

• Society’s perceptions about the impact of disability
• Feelings about having a family member with a disability
• What we are told by others

The secret is seeing that people with disabilities can do great things, and not letting other people’s ideas impact your family member’s ability to make lives for themselves.
The Importance of Having High Expectations

Families set the bar for how the rest of the world sees their family member with a disability.

• Avoiding restrictive programs or placements
• Lives lived in the community
• Lives based on the dreams your family member has for themselves
• Seeing that risk is good and failure can be constructive
The Balancing Act
Patience is Key
What is Success?

Think of a couple things that you would not be successful at on your first try.

Success in employment is an ongoing process and will look different for everyone.

• Hours worked
• Tasks
• Tolerance
• Recognize and celebrate progress!!
WORKSHEET QUESTION 2

What is your family member’s greatest skill or attribute?
HELPFUL TOOL

Positive Personal Profile

The Positive Personal Profile is a tool that job seekers, their families, or employment professionals can use to:

- Help see past the challenges of having a disability and put the focus on positive attributes
- Help inventory those attributes
- Help identify need supports or additional skill building
- Help to prepare for a job interview by finding key points to help "sell yourself" to an employer

Preparing for Employment Success
The Power of Work Experiences

One of the best predictors of employment success for people with disabilities is having meaningful work experiences while in high school.

- Informational interview
- Job Shadowing
- Volunteering
- Internships
- Paid entry-level job
Using Your Networks

Use the people you know to help find work experience opportunities.

• Friends
• Family
• Places you do business
• Neighbors
• People you are in clubs with, worship with, or serve with
Building Responsibility

Finding ways for young people to have responsibilities helps them be good employees.

• Chores
• School work
• Soft Skills
• It’s OK for young people to take risks and to experience failure. The goal is to have them give a good effort.
Getting Involved
School and Employment

The high school and transition years are the perfect time to focus school programs on preparing for employment.

• Are skills needed for work included as goals in the IEP?
• Career exploration
• Functional skills and soft skills
• Work experiences

Quick Tip: Parent advocates can help coach you on asking for employment-focused activities in the IEP.
Consider ALL Possible Supports

- Only 25% of persons with I/DD will access formal services
- Consider community-based options, technology solutions, and personal relationships as possible employment supports
Discussing Your Concerns
Having Questions or Concerns is Normal

When thinking about a real job in the community for your family member, is there anything that makes you worried or concerned?

- Vulnerability
- Safety
- Can they do the job?
- Who will hire them?
- Will they lose benefits?
WORKSHEET QUESTION 3

What is your greatest concern when thinking about employment for your family member?
Myths about Employment

Misinformation and misunderstanding can hold us back from considering employment.

- People with disabilities don’t work fast enough (MYTH)
- Employees with disabilities won’t be accepted by co-workers (MYTH)
- Sheltered work is safer than community jobs (MYTH)
- People who leave workshops lose their friends (MYTH)
- People with significant disabilities don’t need to work (MYTH)
