

Empowering Parents with Disabilities

TOOLS & RESOURCES

A white woman with brown hair and purple glasses sits on a navy blue couch holding her newborn son in a mustard infant wrap.

ABOUT US

- 501(c)(3) nonprofit
- Dedicated to empowering parents with all types of disabilities.
- Resources to help people with disabilities and their children thrive.

A white woman with brown hair and purple glasses sits in her wheelchair bent over smiling at her son who looks up at her from the floor.

HOW WE STARTED

My story: As a mother with cerebral palsy, when I was pregnant with my son, there were very limited resources to turn to so when he turned a year old, I started a YouTube channel to share my experience as a parent with a disability during a pandemic.

VISION

To create an inclusive community for parents with disabilities around the world.

Right: A white woman wearing a gold beanie and a teal snow jacket smiles holding her son, who is also wearing snow gear. They are sitting together in a blue outdoor wheelchair.

@RKBarkley
Above: A black and white image of a white woman sitting, smiling, and holding her newborn baby. There is a crib in the background.

MISSION

Adaptive Parent Project aims to change the narrative of healthcare for individuals with disabilities, to lead to disability-informed provider selection by patients with disabilities.

Left: An image of a smiling Asian woman in a purple dress standing in a walker with her partner who wears a grey shirt and jeans and their toddler wearing a pastel tutu dress.

Right: An image of a white woman with reddish brown hair sitting in a purple wheelchair holding a paper flag and her son, who has blonde hair and is in a baby harness.

@adventures_in_mollyland

@ChevyCheyPhoto

@wifey_on_wheels

WAYS WE HELP

- Connecting families to products and resources that can benefit them.
- Connecting people with similar disabilities and levels of function
- Connecting people with professionals who are disability-informed
- Connecting families to accessible public spaces and services

❤️ 💬 📍 📌
@daniizzie

Left: A white woman with brown hair feeds her twin girls from her wheelchair. The text reads: Lunch time: Adaptive Edition and features labels for Chicco 360 hook on seats and Extra long baby spoon with grip.

HOW WE PARTNER WITH PROVIDERS AND ORGANIZATIONS

We partner with other providers to secure grant funding and we are building a pool of professionals that have experience working with people with disabilities that can assist in their parenting journey.

Right: An Asian woman with black hair wearing a mustard hoodie stands next to a white woman with blue framed glasses wearing a blue floral shirt. They are both smiling at the camera

@daniizzie

QUESTIONS?

Thank you so much for attending our webinar!

@RKBarkley

Right: A white woman with blonde hair, a red and black checkered shirt, jeans and tall, black boots sits in her red power chair holding her infant son on her lap also wearing a plaid outfit, jeans and a grey beanie. A white male with blonde hair wearing glasses, a blue sweater and jeans, stands behind her holding her hand.

Above: Two women in wheelchairs sit next to each other. The woman on the left has brown hair and is wearing glasses with a toddler boy on her lap who is wearing a red and black checkered jacket and hat. The woman on the right is wearing a grey beanie, grey sweatshirt and black pants. They are all smiling at the camera.

CONTACT US

E-mail            adaptiveparentproject@gmail.com
Website           www.adaptiveparentproject.org
Instagram        @adaptiveparentproject