July is widely recognized as Disability Pride Month.

The official theme for Disability Pride Month 2025, as selected by The Arc's National Council of Self-Advocates, is: "We Belong Here, and We're Here to Stay." Link: The Arc - Why and How to Celebrate Disability Pride Month

This theme emphasizes that people with disabilities are an essential and vital part of every community, highlighting the need for continued inclusion and pushing back against ableism. Disability Pride Month also coincides with the anniversary of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), which was signed into law on July 26, 1990. www.ada.gov
